

Sean Mulhearn
Founder/CEO
Jacaranda Capital Partners Pte Ltd

Sean Mulhearn is the founder and CEO of a Jacaranda Capital Partners Pte Ltd, a Singapore based boutique investment, advisory and corporate training company.

Mr Mulhearn has been in the financial markets for 30 years and has had considerable experience in Asia, Europe, North and South America.

Prior to founding Jacaranda Capital Partners Mr Mulhearn was Global Head of Commodity Sales and Global Head of Commodity Finance at ANZ based in Singapore from 2011-2014.

He was also Head of Commodity Sales (Fixed Income) at JPM Morgan from 2009-2011 and was Global Head of Commodities Sales at Standard Chartered Bank based in Singapore from 2006-2009.

From 1999 to 2006 he worked in New York for Merrill Lynch York where he was responsible for the Structured Commodity Finance business within the Investment Banking group and Citigroup where he worked for 20 years in various roles around the world including Global Head of Commodities Finance, Global Head of commodity derivatives sales, Head of Asian Commodities and Head of Australian Fixed Income and Interest Rate Derivatives.

He has designed and taught risk management courses around the world for banks, corporations and government agencies. He is also a guest speaker at many international conferences and media outlets such as CNBC and Bloomberg.